Requirements For Registration Of .au Domains

If you want to register an Australian domain name, important rules apply. During the registration process, you will be required to meet the requirements as stated below.

Other domain names without the .au e.g. .com, .net, etc do not require you to meet these requirements.

.COM.AU & .NET.AU

Popular amongst commercial entities, identifies your domain entity as being based in Australia, serving an Australian market. ABN/ACN/ARBN, etc is required.

Australian Business Numbers may be applied for online at:
http://www.abr.gov.au/ABR_BC/
Sole Traders should choose entity type of 'sole trader'.

You must be able to supply an ABN/ACN/ABRN or ARSN to secure a domain - and must meet one of the following criteria:

- * An exact match of the business name or trademark
- * An abbreviation of the business name or trademark
- * An acronym of the business name or trademark
- * Product that the business manufactures or sells
- * A program that the business administers
- * An activity that your business facilitates, teaches or trains
- * A service that your business provides
- * A venue that the business operates
- * A profession that is practised by the employees or members of the business.
- * An event that your business organises or sponsors

Place names in Australia are disallowed as domain names

Domain names can be 2 to 63 letters, and words can be separated by hyphens, but not spaces.

.ORG.AU

Charities, or not-for-profit organisations, as specified in your articles of association, qualifies for a org.au domain name. e.g. clubs, churches, charities.

ANY non-commercial registered Australian entity is eligible.

.ASN.AU

ANY non-commercial registered Australian entity is eligible, and must meet one of the following criteria:

- * A program that the business administers
- * An activity that your business facilitates, teaches or trains
- * A service that your business provides
- * A venue that the business operates
- * A profession that is practised by the employees or members of the business.
- * An event that your business organises or sponsors

.ID.AU

Especially designed for individuals, NO ABN/ACN/ABRN/ARSN requirements and must reside in Australia. Applicant must meet the following criteria:

- * Derived from or includes the individual's name

For more information, refer to .auDA website.
